Open Graduate Assistantship Positions for 2021-2022

The Dean of Students Office is conducting a search for multiple open Graduate Assistantships for 2021-2022. The Dean of Students Office consists of the various units that provide the campus community with a diverse and broad range of programming and services: Student Accountability (Student Code of Conduct and Code of Academic Integrity), Student Assistance, Fraternity and Sorority Programs, Student Governance (Associated Students of the University of Arizona), VETS Center, First Amendment, Bias Education and Response (BEST), Behavioral Intervention, and oversight of the Richard H. Tyler Student Emergency Fund.

The open assistantships are part of The Dean of Students Office Graduate & Professional Students Program which was implemented nine years ago to offer a comprehensive and consistent professional development opportunity to the graduate assistants serving in the various graduate assistantships within the Dean of Students Office. The program meets the educational goals of UA graduate and professional students by providing Graduate Assistant (GA) stipends, giving GAs the opportunity to grow professionally by putting learned theory into practice, and by preparing students for a successful transition into a professional workforce.

The Graduate & Professional Students Program supports the mission and core values of the University of Arizona by providing expanded education and outreach, through a variety of outstanding programs and services, to positively impact diverse members of the campus community and both local and remote community partners. Graduate students who participate in the program receive individualized professional development opportunities which expand their career-related opportunities, offer focused leadership skill development, and a supportive environment for both their academic and professional pursuits.

Graduate Assistants have the opportunity to:

• Plan, organize, lead, and evaluate program initiatives
• Develop the ability to work with a team
• Cultivate leadership, develop community, and create learning opportunities among students
• Improve individual leadership capabilities
• Develop individual and small group leadership and presentation skills
• Learn how to respond appropriately, and use resources, in crisis management situations
• Seek, evaluate, and utilize feedback from supervisors
• Learn to set appropriate professional boundaries, manage time, and set priorities
• Develop an appreciation for the complexity and breadth of Higher Education
• Leave the University prepared for a successful transition into a professional position
